A banner to remember

Chris French / Record-Journal

Jason Tosta, 5, signs a portion of a banner on the Southington Town Green Monday afternoon. The banner, commemorating those who died in the terrorist attacks of Sept. 11, is being brought to the 48 contiguous states. Please see story on page 15.

SOUTHINGTON

'We The People' Banner Coming

SOUTHINGTON — Town officials, local fire, police and rescue workers, and residents from area communities are invited to the town green Tuesday from 5 to 8 p.m. to write messages on a "We the People" banner, which traveled across the United States to memorialize victims of the Sept. 11 attacks.

The banner's trip began July 4, 2002, in Fort Lauderdale, Fla. It has traveled more than 21,000 miles across the 48 contiguous

United States, visiting Shanksville, Pa., and Washington, D.C., before arriving in New York City Sept. 11.
